

- 04.05.
(18-20 h, S59) Cédric Argenton, Tilburg University
„Joint predation“
- 11.05.
(16-18 h, S57) Agnès Benassy-Quéré, Paris University
„Rebalancing Growth in China: An International Perspective“
- 18.05.
(16-18 h, S57) Thomas Lux, Universität Kiel
„Explaining and Forecasting the Psychological Component of Economic Activity“
- 01.06.
(16-18 h, S57) Rudolf Schüssler, Universität Bayreuth
„Merkantilismus – das neue Bild von einer alten Wirtschaftsdoktrin“
- 08.06.
(16-18 h, S57) Johannes Schmieder, Boston University
„The Effects of Extended Unemployment Insurance Over the Business Cycle: Evidence from Regression Discontinuity Estimates over Twenty Years“
- 15.06.
(16-18 h, S57) Kevin Staub, Universität Zürich
„Online publication and economic research“
- 22.06.
(16-18 h, S57) Tom Stargardt, Universität Hamburg
„The relationship between costs and outcomes in hospitals“
- 29.06.
(18-20 h, tba) Michael Ryan, Western Michigan University
„Financial Constraints and Multinational Investment“
- 06.07.
(16-18 h, S57) Doug Nelson, Tulane University
„International Trade and Income Distribution: The Effect of Corporate Governance Regimes“
- 13.07.
(16-18 h, S57) Yuan Ju, York University
„Coalitional Externalities, Strategic Bargaining, and Efficient Values“
- 20.07.
(16-18 h, S57) Michael Devereux, Oxford University
„How do taxes affect cross-border acquisitions“