

Volkswirtschaftliches Seminar

RW

- |                          |   |
|--------------------------|---|
| 16.04.(16-18 h, S64) | Anders Laugesen, Aarhus University„An Industry-Equilibrium Analysis of the LeChatelier Principle“     |
| 07.05.(16-18 h, S64) | Martin Watzinger, Universität Münchentba  |
| 14.05.(16-18 h, S64) | Max Albert, Universität Gießen„External validity of economic experiments“(joint talk)             |
| 21.05.(16-18 h, S64) | Colin Jennings, King's College London„Rationalising ‘Irrational’ Support for Political Violence“      |
| 28.05.(16-18 h, S64) | Teodora Borota, Uppsala University„Wage and Firm Dynamics in a Globalized Economy“                    |
| 04.06.(16-18 h, S64) | Christian Leßmann, Universität Nürnberg„Trade Openness and Interregional Inequality“                  |
| 11.06.(16-18 h, S64) | Roland Straub, ECB„Capital Controls and Macroprudential Measures: What Are They Good For?“            |
| 25.06.(16-18 h, S64) | Mathias Erlei, TU Clausthal„Begrenzte Rationalität als wesentlicher Bestandteil des Hold-up-Problems“ |
| 02.07.(16-18 h, S64) | Alejandro Riaño, Nottingham University„Global Engagement and Returns Volatility“                      |
| 09.07.(16-18 h, S64) | Gerhard Glomm, Indiana University„On the Political Economy of Public Education“                       |